In fact, few companies in the U.S. can rival our level of expertise and support with Sage HRMS. If you currently use Sage Abra / Sage HRMS and feel the system isn't meeting your needs, we're happy to evaluate your system. Then we'll provide the real, honest help you're looking for. If you don't have the time or manpower to write business critical reports internally, PeopleSense's highly qualified consultants can cost-effectively write these reports for you, allowing your staff to focus on their primary job functions.

Implementation of New Functionality

If you've just purchased an add-on product to extend the capabilities of Sage HRMS, or if you've added a new module, experienced PeopleSense consultants can install and setup the software – and train your staff – so you gain the full benefit of the new functionality.

Software Upgrades

Our experienced consultants have performed innumerable system and platform upgrades for customers over the last 2 decades.

Post-Upgrade or Installation Training

Often after companies implement their new human resources software or add-on product, they're not sure how to encourage user adoption, or even how to best extract critical data from the system. Learning as you go can become a frustrating process for even the most dedicated employee – especially since the pace of work never seems to slow down. When you're ready to get the most out of your HRMS and Payroll software, PeopleSense can help with a personalized training regimen that ensures all your staff members are up-to-date with the features and functionalities your Sage Abra Suite and Sage HRMS software offers.
